

Gustavo Bolaños Gets the Award of Best Manager of the Year

GUATEMALA, November 25, 2015 – The Managers’ Association of Guatemala annually organizes the event “Manager of the Year”. At this year’s event, Gustavo Bolaños, Chief Operating Manager, was recognized with the award in the category of Global Management for his outstanding management at AgroAmerica, parent company of ONE Banana, that currently has operations in Guatemala, Panama, Ecuador and Peru.

In his acceptance speech, Bolaños explained that he was proud of the development of the company, not only in matters of profitability, but also for its commitment to the improvement of the country: “AgroAmerica & ONE Banana are dedicated to growing, shipping and distributing the highest quality products and are steadfastly committed to sustainability, the development of the communities that surround us, and the care for natural resources”. The management team of AgroAmerica & ONE Banana joined him at the event where he was recognized and were able to celebrate the achievement with Bolaños.

During the gala, it was shown how AgroAmerica & ONE Banana have turned into successful companies, not only for their profitability and productivity, but also for their commitment to social responsibility and certifications that allow them to operate with global standards that differentiate them within the global market. All of this makes AgroAmerica & ONE Banana sustainably-focused companies that have worked diligently to obtain the recognition of Global Expansion.
